Description

A large private plot of rustic land located in the countryside of Las Piedras, just a short 10 minute drive from the local town of Huerca-Overa and 45 minutes from the coast.

The elevated land has 11993m² and easy access from the main road which leads directly up to an open flattened section, from this open area the land slopes away and back down towards the main road where there are a few neighboring houses down below.

The land currently has almond trees planted with water connected which could be used for planting further fruit trees and orchards.

There is an agricultural building of 105m² with electric and water connected which is not currently declared.
