Description

RESERVED JULY 2024

This is a rare opportunity, to purchase a two bedroom, one bathroom apartment on Bancal del Olivo, a small community, enjoying a communal pool with grounds and also a garage.

The property has road access and the garage is located underneath the apartment.

Stairs will take you to the front door.

On entering, you access a light, bright open plan living and dining area.

From here, you have access to your private terrace area, which is of a good size, and large enough to incorporate table and chairs. From here you can enjoy lovely sea views. An ideal place to sit and relax.

Returning to the living area, you will see an open fireplace, ideal for those cooler winter evenings. Then moving forward, you access your kitchen through an arch. So although a separate space, it is ideally connected to the living space also.

Here you will find ample storage, a window for ventilation and white goods. You can even enjoy the sea views from here!

From here a doorway, leads you out to a private patio area. Again, large enough for external furniture and for enjoying al fresco living and dining. There is a gateway, which takes you out to the road.

A staircase from here will take you up to your private roof solarium. From the moment you reach the top step, you will see the blue Mediterranean Sea stretching out in front of you. Looking backwards, you will see the mountains and Mojacar pueblo. So 360° views!

A further archway from the living space, takes you to both bedrooms and the family bathroom.

The first bedroom is a good size double, with fitted wardrobes, and views to the coast.

The second double bedroom is opposite, again a good size with fitted wardrobes.

The family bathroom is located between the bedrooms. It has a bathtub, with overhead shower and is tiled in the traditional Andalusian style of tiles.

There is also a useful storage room, which houses the boiler.
