This charming townhouse, full of character, is nestled in the heart of the vibrant village of Turre. Recently renovated, the property beautifully preserves its authentic charm, as seen in the photos.

As you enter, you're greeted by a welcoming hallway, which is currently used as a cosy office space. From here, you have the option to step into the spacious lounge on the left or head straight into the snug room.

The snug serves as a comfortable retreat and leads directly to the well-sized kitchen, which boasts ample counter space, perfect for those who enjoy cooking. Additionally, the snug provides access to the second bedroom, which opens out to the covered terrace at the back of the house. This terrace offers lovely views of the surrounding countryside (campo) and the village. Just off the terrace is the modernised bathroom, blending contemporary updates with the home's traditional feel.

Back in the lounge, you'll find stairs leading up to the main bedroom, a private and peaceful space. Continuing further, the stairs take you to the rooftop solarium, where you can enjoy panoramic views across the village. This rooftop space is ideal for soaking in the sun or enjoying an evening drink while taking in the scenery.
