Description

This East Facing, Five Bedroom, Detached Villa in Atalaya Park is located close to the Rojales Aquapark and just minutes from the bustling Quesada high street, offering a wide variety of restaurants, café bars, and shops. La Marquesa Golf Course is only a 5 minute drive away, with the stunning beaches of the Costa Blanca South reachable in approximately 15 minutes. Set on a 420m² tiled plot, this spacious 202m² villa features a covered entrance terrace leading into a bright, curved living area with three sets of windows and a pellet burner. The open-plan American-style fitted kitchen is complemented by a separate utility room. The main level offers three double bedrooms with built-in wardrobes, a family shower room, and a master en suite. The underbuild, accessed externally, provides excellent guest or extended family accommodation with two additional double bedrooms, a wet room, and a generous lounge/dining area. External stairs lead to a solarium with lovely views towards the mountains and communal pool. The outdoor space includes a refurbished private saltwater pool, a separate enclosed room currently used as a bar, a BBQ area, and off-road parking. Air conditioning is installed in all bedrooms, making this a comfortable home all year round. An exceptional and versatile property in a well-connected location on the Costa Blanca South.
